Complementing the air cooled generators is our own Overhead Valve Industrial Engine (OHVI), while the mid-range liquid-cooled generators featured customized gas or diesel engines for optimal electrical power generation performance.

As the industry's innovative leader, we believe in truly meeting our customers' needs by designing our product to meet their specifications. This "whatever you want, we can build it" attitude has allowed us to emerge into new markets. Our continued growth will permit us to expand our vertically integrated Waukesha manufacturing facility by over 30% within the next year.

From Your Chairman:

I wish to thank Ron Holland and the people at John Deere Horicon for last month's plant tour and dinner program. The dinner program focus was on work unit productivity and the development of an employee culture that leads to employee satisfaction and improved quality. This is generally not an area of the manufacturing process that we are exposed to but it was very evident that it creates a win/win situation through improved quality and increased customer and employee satisfaction.

The Governing Board has asked National to conduct a section member interest survey to help us improve programs and better address our members needs and interests. You will be receiving a survey form in a couple of weeks. Please take the time to complete these survey forms and return them to National in the self addressed, stamped envelopes provided in the survey packet.

William J. Schultz
1998/1999 Chairman
